More on ADVERBS

- Last time we learned how to form adverbs from adjectives. Sometimes in French, adjectives may be used with certain verbs but they have an adverbial meaning. These adjectives never agree, as they behave as if they were adverbs.

to be expensive	coûter cher	to see clearly	voir clair
to talk loudly	parler fort	to work hard	travailler dur
to talk quietly	parler bas	to fall heavily	tomber dru
to be heavy	peser lourd	to sing in/out of tune	chanter juste/faux
to smell nice	sentir bon	to smell bad	sentir mauvais

- Cette voiture a coûté très cher. La valise pèse lourd
  La dame qui parle trop fort. La pluie est tombée dru
  Tu sens bon ce soir, ma chérie! Beurk! Qui sent mauvais?

- ADVERBS never come before subject and the verb as is sometimes the case in English. "I often go to Paris" "~~Je souvent vais à Paris~~". ADVERBS normally go after a CONJUGATED VERB or before an INFINITIVE:

  - Je suis souvent allé en France Il a vite mangé sa pomme
  - Je veux tout faire Il va bientôt pleuvoir

- Some adjectives do not have an adverbial form. They are translated by an adverbial phrase:

  - parler d'une voix FEM ADJ — the way someone speaks
  - regarder d'un air MASC ADJ — the way someone looks at sthg/sb
  - marcher d'un pas MASC ADJ — the way someone walks
  - faire qc d'une manière FEM ADJ — the way someone does sthg

  - il l'a regardé d'un air fâché Elle y est entrée d'un pas maladroit

- Some more points to learn

  - ne…PAS ENCORE – not yet ne…MÊME PAS – not even ne…TOUJOURS PAS - still not ENCORE PLUS - even more

  - Je n'ai pas encore fini Elle n'a même pas dit merci!
  - Il n'a toujours pas reçu la lettre Il l'a fait encore plus vite!

How to say "this/that NOUN" and "this one/those"

- We know that an ADJECTIVE describes a noun and a PRONOUN replaces it completely. DEMONSTRATIVE ADJECTIVES are ones which enable you to say THIS noun, THAT noun, THOSE nouns and THESE nouns. Because they are adjectives, they will need to agree with the noun they describe, and you will still need to use the noun as well.

- DEMONSTRATIVE ADJECTIVES are:

ce (cet*)	cette	ces	ces

*Note the special MS (masc.sing) form used for nouns starting with a vowel or "h"

cette chaise	cet homme*	cet oiseau*	ces hommes
ce garçon	cette fille	ces livres	ces tables

- French doesn't always feel the need to make a difference between "THIS book" and "THAT book". Nor between "THESE books" and "THOSE books". The context normally makes it clear. But, if you need to make a difference between what is "near" and "far", you add a suffix to the noun.

  - NOUN-ci for what is felt to be near (this/these)
  - NOUN-là for what is felt to be further away (that/those)

cette chaise-ci	cet homme-là	ces filles-là
ce garçon-ci	cet oiseau –là	ces livres-ci

- If you want to say "this ONE" or "that ONE", "these (ones)" or "those (ones)" then you need to use the DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUN and you will no longer need to use the noun.

celui	celle	ceux	celles

- You cannot use these words on their own. You will need to use them in one of 3 ways:
  - add "-ci" or "-là"
    Je n'aime pas cette chaise, je préfère CELLE-LÀ
  - follow it with another clause linked by qui or que (or dont)
    J'ai acheté CELUI QUE tu m'as recommandé/ CELUI QUI était en coton
  - follow it with a DE plus somebody's name to express possession
    Mon stylo ne marche plus – je vais utiliser CELUI DE Jean-Paul.
