119. ADVERBS

a) from adjectives ending in a vowel : take the masculine form and add -ment

vrai + ment: vraiment absolu + ment: absolument

b) from most adjectives ending in a consonant : take feminine form and add -ment

heureux → heureuse → heureusement essentiel → essentielle → essentiellement

c) from adjectives ending -ant/*-ent : remove -ant/-ent and add -amment/-emment

constant → const → constamment évident → évid → évidemment

d) some common exceptions

gai	gaiement	aveugle	aveuglément	énorme	énormément
gentil	gentiment	commun	communément	précis	précisément
bref	brièvement	confus	confusément	profond	profondément

Note also	bien	is the adverb	bon	is the adjective
	mieux	is the adverb	meilleur	is the adjective
	vite or rapidement mean "quickly"		rapide	is the adjective

120. Adverbs never agree : they are always INVARIABLE

Note very carefully the spelling of the following adverbs which never change

environ	approximately	ensemble	together
tout de suite	at once/immediately	tout à l'heure	in a minute/just now

121. Sometimes adjectives are used as adverbs. In this case they do not agree with the subject of the verb to be expensive	coûter cher	to see clearly	voir clair

to talk loudly	parler fort	to work hard	travailler dur
to talk quietly	parler bas	to fall thickly (rain, leaves etc.)	tomber dru
to be heavy	peser lourd
to smell nice	sentir bon	to sing out of tune	chanter faux
to smell nasty	sentir mauvais

Ils parlaient fort Elle sent mauvais Les feuilles tombaient dru

122. Position

a) adverbs NEVER come between a subject and a verb

b) tout, mieux, bien, beaucoup, tant, trop, tous all stand

- before an infinitive : pour mieux voir; je dois tout faire
- before a past participle : elle a tout vu; il a bien joué; j'ai trop bu

c) common short adverbs (toujours, souvent, déjà, encore) always stand between the auxiliary and the past participle

J'ai toujours pensé que .....; je leur ai souvent dit que . . .

d) Note the fixed order of the following negatives + adverbs:

not yet	ne . . .pas encore	elle n'est pas encore arrivée
not even	ne . . .même pas	je ne les ai même pas vu(e)s
still not	ne . . .toujours pas	ils ne les ont toujours pas lu(e)s

e) emphatic adverbs of time often stand at the beginning of a phrase : soudain il l'a vu devant lui

123. Always be alert to the possibility that English ". . . .ly" adverbs might best be rendered by an adverbial phrase introduced by de. The possibilities are:

- speech	d'une voix . . . d'un ton . . .	_	look/expression	d'un air . . .
- gait	d'un pas . . .	_	manner	d'une manière/ d'une façon

Il a parlé d'un ton bizarre Elle a marché d'un pas vif

124. Some important points

- even more + adverb : encore plus + adverb (NEVER même plus)
- in a ----- way : d'une façon / d'une manière . . .

125. faire + INFINITIVE

When one verb is followed by another, the second verb is ALWAYS an INFINITIVE.

Note the word order:

faire + INFINITIVE + NOUN	Je ferai peindre la maison
PRONOUN + faire + INFINITIVE	Je la ferai peindre

a) To convey the idea of "having something done" or "getting something done"

I had the car repaired	J'ai fait réparer la voiture
I will get this letter signed	Je ferai signer cette lettre

N.B. There is no PDO agreement on the past participle of faire when it is used in this way.

(The car) I have had it repaired	(La voiture) Je l'ai fait réparer

If the subject of the verb is getting something done to himself, herself or themselves faire becomes reflexive. Note that there is no agreement of the past participle, just as in (a) above

She had her hair cut	Elle s'est fait couper les cheveux

b) To convey the idea of "making someone do" something:

1. When the following infinitive DOES NOT HAVE a direct object or a dependent que clause, faire takes a direct object (pronouns: me, te, le, la, nous, vous, les)

I made her forget	Je l'ai fait oublier (no agreement)
I made my mother sing	J'ai fait chanter ma mère

2. When the following infinitive DOES HAVE a direct object or a dependent que clause, faire takes an indirect construction (pronouns me, te lui, nous, vous, leur)

I made her forget her worries	Je lui ai fait oublier ses soucis
I made her forget she had any worries	Je lui ai fait oublier qu'elle avait des soucis
I made my mother sing a song	J'ai fait chanter une chanson à ma mère

c) "To make oneself" + PAST PARTICIPLE

se faire + INFINITIVE

They made themselves heard	Ils se sont fait entendre
She made herself obeyed	Elle s'est fait obéir
We made ourselves understood	Nous nous sommes fait comprendre
