Useful vocabulary

With all the following verbs it is important to remember if they take a direct or an indirect object.

If they are simply followed by quelqu'un [qn] or quelque chose [qch] they take a direct object and will use the pronouns me, te, le, la, nous, vous, les. Beware of preceding direct object agreements!

If the verb is followed by à qn the object is indirect and the pronouns to be used are me, te, lui, nous, vous, leur. These pronouns do NOT force an agreement of the past participle.

to take SOMETHING	emporter quelque chose (nb TWO WORDS in quelque chose)
