ETON A Level French Grammar: Pre-test practice: EW 13

Traduisez

82 What three things does POUVOIR imply? What is the cardinal rule about what sort of verb form will follow it?

TRANSLATE:

I may have eaten | I might eat | I will be able to eat

He can drink | I was not able to drink | she can drink

I would have been able to eat had | we may have eaten | she could have

If she had been able to eat | I would have been able to go out

83 Where MAY or MIGHT express possibility what can you use instead of the verb POUVOIR?

She may be right. | They may be French.

You might be ill. | I might be at home.

COULD HAVE and MIGHT HAVE are translated by the imperfect tense when?

She might have been 34. The restaurant could have been over an hour away.

When do you not use POUVOIR to translate CAN and COULD?

Can you see me? | Schtum! I can't hear! | I can't play the piano.

84 I pity my sister. | He laughed at me. | The piano? I can play it.

I can't do without sugar. | It depends on the weather. | She came up to me.

The sugar I can't do without | The book he laughed at. | The pen we used.