ETON A Level French Grammar: Pre-test practice: EW 16

Traduisez

92 It is important to understand that a subjunctive will normally only be used when there is a change of subject. If there is not a change of subject, what construction is used in its place?

We read the letter before we went out.

We read the letter before he went out.

93 I want you to drink I want to drink I want her to see

I prefer to swim I prefer you to come at 7pm She prefers to read

I am ashamed to be so lazy He is ashamed you are so fat

I'm sorry I didn't come He is sorry she didn't come

I'm afraid to speak He is afraid she may be angry

I doubt it is true I doubt he will come

94/5 It is high time you knew it
It is unlikely she is free

It seems you are right It appears I am wrong

She is the tallest girl I have seen It's the longest book I have read

It is certain that she is twelve It isn't definite that she is busy