F Mich 3 Grammar notes

How to say "in/to/from" + place name

- To say "to/in" a country, you use "en" for feminine countries and "au/x" for masculine countries. Generally, feminine countries end in the letter "-e".

je vais	en France	en Écosse
j'habite	en Angleterre	en Italie
	en Espagne	en Australie
	en Allemagne	en Afrique (du sud)
	en Autriche	en Irlande (du nord)
	en Belgique

je vais	au Pays de Galles	au Portugal
	au Canada	au Maroc
	au Japon	aux États-Unis

- To say "from" a country, you use "de" for feminine countries and "du" for masculine countries, "des" if a plural country like USA.

je viens	de France	d'Écosse
une lettre	d'Angleterre	des États-Unis
	du Japon	du Portugal

- Towns have no gender. To say "in/to" always use "à" to say "from" always use "de".

je suis/vais	à Windsor	à Paris
une lettre	de Lille	de Slough

- Some French towns have "Le/Les" in their name. This will elide with any "à" or "de" to give "au/x" and "du/des". (Le Havre, Le Mans, Les Sables d'Olonne etc*)*

je suis/vais	au Havre	aux Sables d'Olonne
une lettre	du Havre	des Sables d'Olonne

- To say "to/in" for English counties, use "dans le". For the French départements, use "dans + the relevant article le/la/les".

dans le Berkshire	dans le Yorkshire	dans le Suffolk
dans le Bas-Rhin	dans la Loire	dans les Alpes-Maritimes

- For (feminine*) French regions, "in/to" is translated by "en" and "from" by "de".

en Provence	de Provence
en Normandie	de Normandie
en Bretagne	de Bretagne

*Masc. French regions use DANS LE: Dans le Languedoc, dans le Dauphiné

-ER Verbs with present tense stem changes

- ALL –ER verbs (except "aller") have the same endings in the present tense.
  -e, -es, -e, -ons, -ez, -ent.
- -GER verbs need to preserve the soft "g" of the infinitive. If there is no "e/i" in the ending, then an "e" needs to be added to soften the otherwise hard "g". For the present tense, this means that "nous" forms only require an extra "e". The personal verb endings provide an "e" for other persons.
  - je NAG e nous NAG e ons ils NAG ent
  - arranger, bouger, charger, corriger, déménager, déranger, encourager, exiger, héberger, juger, loger, longer, manger, mélanger, nager, négliger, obliger, partager, plonger, prolonger, ranger, rédiger, songer, soulager, voyager
- -CER verbs need to preserve the soft "c" of the infinitive. These verbs achieve this by adding a cedilla accent to any "C" that is not followed by an "e/i". Again, this means the "nous" form only in the present tense
  - je COMMENC e nous COMMEN Ç ons ils COMMENC ent
  - coincer, déplacer, divorcer, lancer, menacer, percer, placer, prononcer, recommencer, remplacer, renforcer, renoncer, tracer
- -YER verbs. Here, the "y" changes to "i" in all people except "nous/vous"
  - je netto i e nous netto y ons ils netto i ent
  - s'ennuyer, appuyer, employer, envoyer, essuyer, payer, essayer*, balayer AYER verbs make these changes optionally. It's easier just to make them.*
- -E/É-consonant-ER verbs. The penultimate "e" will take a grave accent in all person except "nous/vous".
  - j'ach è te nous ach e tons ils ach è tent
  - j'esp è re nous espér ons ils espè rent
  - accélérer, céder, compléter, considérer, espérer, exagérer, inquiéter, posséder, régler, répéter, révéler, suggérer, acheter, amener, emmener, enlever, geler, lever, mener, peser, promener, ramener
- APPELER, RAPPELER, JETER .These verbs double the penultimate consonant of the infinitive in all persons except "nous/vous".
  - j'appel l e nous appel ons ils appel l ent
