Pre-test exercise 1

- Translate

1. He's a lawyer but my dad is a better lawyer
2. Is she a Catholic?
3. Have you washed your hands?
4. What a strange man! (bizarre)
5. Australia is fantastic!

- Same exercise

1. Did you see some some pretty girls?
2. He only reads novels in English (un roman)
3. He didn't drink wine last night.
4. Too many of the books were in English, but lots of novels were in French.
5. Dr Frankenstein was very intelligent.

Pre-test exercise 2

- Translate

1. I read it to improve my French (améliorer)
2. She gave it to him to so he would be pleased
3. We did our homework before going out.
4. We did it before they got back home
5. You will find the test hard unless you do some revision (faire des révisions)

Pre-test exercise 3

- Translate

1. I'm pleased you came.
2. I hope you can come.
3. I don't think she knows the answer.
4. I think she's lying.
5. I'm afraid you can't come.
6. You father is an excellent stockbroker.
7. Why did he only buy red wine?
8. Why didn't he buy white wine?
9. Although French is interesting, it's quite hard.
10. It is necessary that he tells the truth.