How to use question words: who?, what? etc.

- If you begin a sentence with a question word you must follow it either with "est-ce que" or inversion. You may not use the "intonation" method you learned in chapter one, even though you will hear this in spoken, informal French.

  - Où allez-vous Où est-ce que vous allez? ~~Où vous allez?~~
  - Quel âge as-tu? Quel âge est-ce que tu as? ~~Quel âge tu as?~~

When is "QUOI" used?

- This word means "what" though it is mainly only used:
  - On its own as a single word question or exclamation:
    - Quoi? Quoi!
  - After prepositions:
    - Avec quoi? En quoi est cette chemise? À quoi penses-tu?

How to describe things using adjectives

You must now complete the yellow Pre-Test Exercises at the back of this booklet: your teacher will check you have done them and review the answers with you before your test in div. Don't leave blanks: consult the pamphlet as you do them.

- Adjectives describe/qualify nouns. They have to agree with the noun they describe/qualify.

- To make an adjective feminine:
  - If it ends in "e", do nothing. (jeune, rouge)
  - If it ends in a consonant, add an "e"
    court – courtE content – contentE

- Except for words with similar endings to those in the left hand column below have the following feminine ending. Learn the examples, it's easier.
  - fiER – fiÈRE
  - heurEUX - heurEUSE
  - oisIF -oisIVE
  - parisIEN -parisIENNE
  - solenEL -solenELLE
